CRITERIA
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This equity pay differential will be on a temporary basis pending the establishment of new managerial classes and permissive on the part of the appointing power, and must be preapproved by DPA. The movement of the employee from the Career Executive Assignment (CEA) class to a civil service class must be the result of the State Personnel Board's (SPB) decision that the employee's position does not, or positions performing the same levels of duties and responsibilities do not, meet the CEA category criteria as the SPB is currently interpreting them. The employee must continue to perform the same duties performed as a CEA; or The employee is moving from a CEA position to a position removed from the CEA category as the result of an SPB determination and DPA has determined that (1) the movement is in the best interest of the State; (2) the new position involves at least the same level of duties and responsibilities as the employee's current CEA position; and (3) there is no better alternative for dealing appropriately with State and employee interests. Eligibility for the differential does not depend upon an employee's amount of State service. The differential shall continue until the employee moves to a position not eligible for the differential.
